The Watermill Center | Residency & Exhibitions Manager

The Watermill Center seeks a Residency & Exhibitions Manager to join our Artist Programs department. Reporting to the Artist Programs Director, this integral member of the on-site team will manage and support The Watermill Center’s multidisciplinary artist residency programs, fellowships, exhibitions, and special projects. The ideal candidate is highly collaborative, detail-oriented, and committed to the arts and artists. The Residency & Exhibitions Manager will work closely with the Artist Programs Director, Curator, International Summer Program staff, and Facilities team to create a seamless experience and nurturing work environment for all resident and visiting artists. Candidates should have a background in arts administration/artist management and/or experience in a non-profit arts setting.

About The Watermill Center

Founded in 1992 by Robert Wilson, The Watermill Center is an interdisciplinary laboratory for the arts and humanities situated on ten acres of Shinnecock ancestral territory on Long Island’s East End. With an emphasis on creativity and collaboration, Watermill offers artist residencies and education programs that integrate contemporary artistic practice with resources from the humanities and research from the sciences.

Situated at 39 Watermill Towd Rd, a 20,000-square-foot main facility houses a Study Library, Art Collection, spaces for rehearsals, performances, and exhibitions, a kitchen with dining areas, and office space. The Artist Residence, at 11 Watermill Towd Road, is a 10,000-square-foot facility with eight private bedrooms, a kitchen, living areas, and an amphitheater. The Art Collection consists of 5,000+ works of art and artifacts, ranging from ancient to contemporary, including numerous museum-quality works from Indonesia, Africa, and Oceania, as well as works by contemporary artists such as Paul Thek, Donald Judd, Bruce Nauman, Robert Mapplethorpe, Agnes Martin, among others.
